

Guy CODJIA is a jurist. He is Vice President, Strategy & Organization of OLIZAIR Group.

His professional experience has been entirely acquired within former Air Afrique. He worked as an executive at the Headquarters and in Benin before ruling various country offices as General Manager : Congo, Kenya and Nigeria. He attended several management trainings and seminars as well as various meetings in Africa, Europe and USA: marketing meetings, schedule coordination, timetable audit, etc.

June 2005 : Vice President, Strategy & Organization (Olizair)

Sep. 2002 – May 2005 : General Manager, Gulf of Benin Region (Olizair)

Sep. 2000 – Apr. 2002 : GM for Air Afrique Nigeria

Jul. 1999 – Aug. 2000 : GM for Air Afrique Kenya

Main responsibility : Settling a country office and opening an air service between West and East Africa

Specific task : Follow up of talks and drawing up of the Codeshare Agreement between Kenya Airways and Air Afrique.

Jan. 1998 – June 1999 : GM, Air Afrique Congo

Oct. 1994 – Dec. 1997 : Air Afrique Representative in Pointe-Noire (Congo)

Aug 1990 – Sep. 1994 : Marketing Manager, Air Afrique Benin

June 1986 – Jul.1990 : Schedule Publication Manager

Main responsibility:

- Audit and selection of connecting flights opportunities
- Audit of published schedules with the Official Airline Guide and ABC travel Guides.
- Member of AFRAA Timetable Task Force: integration of all African airlines' timetables project..

Jan 1983 – May 1986 : Responsible for Economic survey in Air Afrique Flight Planning Department

Main responsibility:

- Cost assessment of the current schedule : Flight diversion cost survey, operations irregularities, various quotations;
- Central co-ordinator of Hajj Pilgrimage organization;
- Attendance to West and Central Africa airlines schedules co-ordination meetings.

May 1976 – Jan. 1983 : Cabin Crew.

Mr G. CODJIA is Master in Business Law, sep. 1981 (Abidjan University).

Foreign languages : French & English : fluent speaking and writing . Spanish : smattering.